

Doug Deptula

Project Manager

Specialty / Expertise

As a Project Manager for the company Mr. Deptula oversees the day to day operations of various types of construction projects including ground up multi-family residential buildings, bank branches, supermarket renovation projects, industrial warehouse/manufacturing conversions and interior office space fit outs. Some of Mr. Deptula's responsibilities include creating budget estimate proposals for potential clients, maintaining a positive working relationship with the owner during the construction phase, construction permit submission and approval, generate and maintain the construction schedule and budget, expedition of subcontractor deliverables and overall project management, planning and closeout.

Career / History / Professional Recognition

Prior to joining Hollister Construction Services as a Project Manager, Mr. Deptula worked in the field with an international construction company on large infrastructure and environmental projects as a Project Engineer.

Education / Association

- Northern Arizona University, College of Engineering
- BS Construction Management

ddeptula@hollistercs.com

201.393.6845

Partial Client List

- Stop and Shop Supermarket Company
- AFL Web Printing
- New York Times Credit Union
- Penguin Publishing USA
- Hors D'oeuvres Unlimited
- Franklin Senior Housing LP
- Capital One Bank
- Summit Associates
- Woodmont Properties